December 2020

Dear Member,

2020 draws to a close – here's hoping for a better 2021

As 2020 draws to a close there are some hopeful signs for next year with news of the first vaccines being approved and the likelihood that 2021 will see things begin to return to normal and hopefully a return to competitive cricket as well as other activities that until this year we all took for granted.

As I have said on numerous occasions since the first lockdown in March, I am grateful to Adam Richardson for his continued work on the ground throughout the period. For those who have ventured into Pollok Estate over the last few months you will appreciate just how much work has been done over the last few months with Shawholm looking as good as it has ever been.

It has also been a delight to see the reintroduction of Winter Golf this year, with one competition, the "Wee Poloc Scramble" completed last month and the "One Club" Challenge scheduled for this coming Saturday.

Having the course open to members of the public to play some golf as Temporary Members has also generated a lot of interest, and of course you can now buy a coffee or a soup whilst out walking on a cold winter's day.

All of these initiatives are bringing in some much-needed revenue at a time when the club, in recent years.

Sad news

Many of you will have read on the website but I am sorry to have to report the death last month of Wilma Duncanson, wife of former President and Honorary Member, Jimmy Duncanson.

Our thoughts are with Jimmy, Sandy and Susan and their families at this sad time.

We also learned of the death of former Grounds Convenor, Leslie Ingram-Brown. Whilst Les' was a Clydesdale man for most of his life he spent a few years as a member of Poloc and did a power of work around the club and grounds during that time.

Our thoughts are with Leslie's family at this time also.

Annual General Meeting

The 142nd Annual General Meeting will take place via Zoom in December and details of its date and time, and how to join, will be circulated in advance giving members the required notice. We would like as many members as possible to join us at this time for the meeting to approve the accounts and to discuss the year ahead.

Yours sincerely,
