

Booked training sessions - updated 29 March 2021

Booking procedure, and terms and conditions

In booking a training session, players making a booking agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions. Failure to adhere to the terms and conditions of use will result in booking privileges being withdrawn.

- The following terms and conditions are compliant with the Cricket Scotland guidelines which were announced on 11 March 2021, and updated on 29 March 2021. Poloc Cricket Club ("the Club") reserves the right to amend these at any time in line with further Cricket Scotland guidance which may be released.
- Only Club members who are up-to-date with payment of their membership subscriptions can book training sessions.
- Training session times available for booking will be intimated to members using WhatsApp member groups.
- Booking is on a "first come, first served" basis, and is confirmed by the Head of Senior Cricket.
- Only Club members who are up-to-date with payment of their membership subscriptions can participated in booked sessions, and cannot bring guests along.
- Player cancelling booked sessions must give 24 hours notice to the Head of Senior Cricket.
- COVID-19 safe training facilities are offered at the sole discretion of the Club's General Committee who can terminate use of these at any time, for any reason, should these terms and conditions not be complied with or it is considered no longer possible to ensure safe use compliant with Cricket Scotland, sportscotland and/or Scottish Government guidance.
- The Club is the sole arbiter of whether weather conditions are conducive for the safe use of training facilities.
- If a session is cancelled because of inclement weather, or any other reason, players who had booked the session must re-book for the next available un-booked session.
- In line with current Scottish Government guidance, if someone is symptomatic, living in a household with a possible COVID-19 infection or is classified as extremely vulnerable on health grounds, they should remain at home and follow Scottish Government guidance.
- Senior players (aged eighteen and older) can use the training zones, with a maximum of fifteen (15) people participating in a session.
- Social distancing of at least two (2) metres must be maintained at all times (unless all participants are members of the same household).
- Players must wash their hands at home before and after using the Club's facilities, and should bring their own hand sanitiser, notwithstanding the provision, by the Club, of sanitising stations.
- Players must use their own equipment. Players from different households must not share any equipment.
- The Club will not be providing club equipment apart from stumps.
- No saliva or sweat should come into contact with the ball at any time.
- The clubhouse will be closed.
- Players using designated training zones do so at their own risk.
- Players must not arrive too early for a booked session, but should aim to arrive at the start of their booked session to comply with social distancing rules.
- Players must bring their own playing/training equipment, including balls.
- Players must bring their own filled drinking bottles.
- Players must avoid touching anything as much as possible whilst at the Club grounds.
- Players must not overstay their booked session, and must be clear of their training zone by the time the next users arrive.
- Players must not stay to socialise after a session.
- The health and safety of participants is paramount – players should ensure when using the training facilities that they minimise risk of injury (wear helmets, pads, etc.).

Please ensure social distancing at all times.
